A Host of Extraordinary Bargain Thursday Sale Specials Will Hold High Carnival Here Tomorrow.

$10 Evening Capes, Sale Price, $4.98.

Another lot of those Fashionable Broadcloth Evening Capes secured from the same maker who furnished us with last week's price surprise.

They are Full-length Capes of satin finish broadcloth, splendidly tailored, full ripple effect.

Choice of mode, electric blue, lavender, gray, tan and copenhagen blue.

Persian silk military collar, straps on shoulders, trimmed with novelty buttons down the front to match. Open on sides for arms.

STORE | Close daily at 6 p.m., except Saturday Close Saturday at 9 p.m. HOURS Open daily at 8 a.m.

Semi-Trimmed Hats, $3.98. Worth $5 and $6.

$5.00 and $6.00 Semi-trimmed Hats, with large full-draped crowns of soft satin; Mushroom Shape Velvet Hats with tam crown or velvet trimmed with soft drapery and bow of Persian satin; also Draped or Plain Velvet Turbans, trimmed with velvet bow or fancy feather; Draped Small Hats, trimmed with large wings and gold braid. In black and leading colors. Choice at $3.98.

Women's New Fall Suits,

Values Worth Up to $30 and $35,

Choice at $13.75

Here's a special offering of Women's New Fall Tailored Suits at an unexpected saving. A New York suit maker seeking a quick outlet for a lot of smartly tailored garments disposed of about one hundred suits to us at an extremely low figure.

They are new fall styles of imported serges, imported basket weave fabrics and cheviots. Correct model coats with mannish revers and collars, also shawl collars trimmed with braid on cuffs.

Coats are richly lined with satin. Skirts in various styles, including the new plaited effects.

Choice of taupe, brown, navy blue and black.

GIRLS' DRESSES of linene, percale, cannon cloth, gingham and neatly trimmed waists; some open down the front and trimmed with pearl buttons; sizes

$25 RUGS 25 Best Quality Alex Smith & Sons' make of Axminster Rugs; 8 ft. 3x10 ft. 6 inches; large room size; in handsome floral, conventional, medallion and oriental designs; perfectly matched; light and dark colorings. Regular $25.00

$3 AND $3.50 LACE CURTAINS Quality Scotch Cable Curtains; 3½ yards long, 50 to 60 inches wide; one to six pairs of each pattern; in heavy worked, motif effects and plain centers, with rich novelty borders. Regular $3.00

12½c CURTAIN SWISS One case of Yard-wide Curtain Swiss; good, sheer quality, in stripes, dots, figures and lace effects; suitable for making curtains, scarfs, etc., etc. Worth 121/2c yard .......

$5.00 PETTICOATS Women's Black Taffeta Silk Petticoats: extra large sizes; made with deep tailored, strapped and shirred ruffles; extra dust ruffles; all lengths. Regular $5.00 value......

Moire Belting, all silk, in black, white 3OC BELTING Moire Belting, all silk, in black, white

NECKWEAR Silk and Lace Persian Dutch and Coat Collars; also Rabots and Jabots to match; good assortment of patterns 25C

19c COLLARS Women's Linen Collars, with fagoted edge; all sizes; various style stitching. Worth 19c each. 12/2C

39cAND 50c PLAITINGS New Persian Plait- 25C

Kid Gloves; two-clasp style, in black, white and tan; all sizes. Worth 88c pair. Bargain Thursday Sale price, pair.

DRESSING SACQUES

| Sacques, of percale, in neat figures and stripes; and stripes; with turn-over collar and stripes;

12½c CAMBRIC bric, a fine, soft finish grade. Free from dressing. Suitable for making women's and children's undergarments. Regular 1216c value. Sale price, yard.....

79c SHEETS double bed size. Hand torn and ironed. Made from heavy round thread sheeting.

8c FLANNEL Unbleached Shaker Flannel, a heavy fleeced quality. Regularly 8c yard. 4780

7c TOWELS 200 dozen Hemmed Absorbent Tea 378C

Children's $2 and $2.25 @ School Shoes at = =

Could you wish for timelier news than this offering of Children's School Shoes at a saving? For a rousing one-day sale in the Children's Shoe Section we have gathered a lot of children's good, serviceable quality School Shoes and marked them at a price that will bring a crowd of shoe buyers here tomorrow.

The lot includes gun metal calf, glaze kid, tan calf and patent colt leathers, in lace, blucher them several numbers of high-cut button and lace shoes. Spring and low heels. Sizes 814 to 2. Also Boys' Patent Colt Shoes, in button and blucher styles. Sizes 1 to 516

Yard-Wide Black Silks. Regular $1.25 Quality, at.

After all is said there's nothing so desirable or dressy as black silk.

36-inch Black Satin Messaline . . 36-inch Black Peau de Cygne Every yard fully guaranteed Handsome black silks

Reduce Your Living Expenses by Taking Advantage of the Economies Offered in Goldenberg's

Cut-Price Coupon Sales.

Every article in this list is offered at a substantial saving. Clip the coupons and present them tomorrow.

COUPON. Regular 5c cakes of Babbitt's Best Laundry Soap, at TWO cakes for 6c. Total value, 10c. Hay's Hair Health, widely advertised and sold regularly at 50c,

COUPON.

Regular 5c packages of Maryland Biscuit Co.'s Baby Snaps, Lunch Crackers or Maryland Bis-cuit at TWO for 6c.

COUPON. Regular 10c size cans of Fish Flakes, superior quality, at TWO for 15c. Total value, 20c.

COUPON. Regular 15c cans of "Coockoo"

Brand Norway Herring, in tomato COUPON.

price 15c a cake-at 5c tomorrow

Munyon's Witch Hazel Toilet Soap, full size cakes-regular larly at 10c, at 6c each. COUPON. Sanitol Tooth Powder, regular 25c size, at 12c tomorrow only. COUPON. 10c jars of Prepared Mustard, COUPON.

COUPON.

Williams' Shaving Sticks, in nickel box, traveler's size, sold

COUPON.

Antiseptic Absorbent Cotton, best grade, in one-ounce cartons,

COUPON.

Sea Salt, for the bath, sold regu-

Large size bags of West India sold regularly at 5c, for 3c.

regularly at 10c, for 6c.

FRUIT JARS

Mason's Best Quality Fruit Jars; machine made; porcelain-lined tops. Choice of pint or quart sizes. Packed one

JELLY TUMBLERS Crystal Glass Jelly Tumblers, with tin tops. Bargain Thursday Sale

50c BOILERS Extra Quality Wash Boilers, with covers, Worth 50c each. Bargain Thursday Sale price

Cluster Puffs; new and stylish shapes; good quality real hair; all desirable shades. Regular $1.00 value. Sale price... $1.00 PUFFS

ASH CANS Heavy Galvanized Iron Ash Cans, with side handles; 20-gallon size. Sale price, 12½c OUTING FLANNEL 27-inch Outand broken plaids. Colors of light blue, gray, pink, green, red, etc. A heavy fleeced quality. Regular 12½c value. Sale

45c DAMASK ask, with a permanent lustrous finish. Choice of five pretty patterns. Worth

Enameled Dishpans; 20-pint size. Worth 25c each. Bargain Thursday 25c DISHPANS colors. A fine, close-woven grade, suitable for making women's waists, dresses and children's dresses. Regular 10c value.

TABLE NAPKINS 100 dozen Mercerized Satin Damask Table Napkins, assortfor use. Size 18x18 inches. Regular $1.00 value. Sale price, 15c SCARFING 1,000 yards of Drawnwork Linene Scarfing, suitable for buffet or stand covers. Regularly 15c yard. Tomor-rose, reseda, olive, lavender, hello, pink, light blue, copenhagen, garnet, tan. champagne, wistaria, raisin; also black. Regular 35c value. Sale price, yard .....

$1.50 LONGCLOTH Twelve-yard pieces of English Longcloth; 36 inches wide; soft, chamois finish, yards in each piece. Regular White India Linon; 40 inches wide; desirable sheer grade, made of selected 20c INDIA LINON Sea Island cotton. Regular 20c value. Sale price, yard......

$1.25 BROADCLOTH

Extra Fine Quality Black Broadcloth; rich satin face and fine twill back grade; percorrect weight for fall tailored wear; 52 inches wide. Regular

Extra Fine Quality Black Broadcloth; rich satin face and fine twill back grade; percorrect weight for fall tailored wear; 52 inches wide. Regular

$1 DIAGONAL 45-inch All-wool Diagonal; one of the most desirable fabrics for fall tailored wear; choice of black, navy blue, brown, garnet, myrtle, copenhagen, tan, gray, etc. Regular $1.00

59c SILKS Special lot of Stylish Check and Hairline Stripe Taffetas; all pure silk quality; fashionable silks for waists and costumes. Regular and bloomer styles; sizes 5 to 16 years. Choice of a good range of dark patterns for school wear. Regular 59c value. Sale price..

BOYS' 59c PANTS

heavy-weight thibet. Regular $3.00 value for ......

More popular than ever this season—the early demand proves that to a certainty.

Enameled Tea Kettles; 8-pint size. 25C

10c CHAMBRAY 27-inch Linen-finish Chambray, in light and dark blue, Fast

35c PONGEE Finest Qualty Yarn-mercerized Pongee, in such favored colors as brown, old

39c HABUTAI SILK

Japanese Habutai Silks, in beautiful Jacquard and dot effects; in a complete also white and black. Regu-

$1 DRESS GOODS Famous Lupin's All-wool Chiffon Taffeta; 44 inches wide; in navy blue, brown, garnet, myrtle, copenhagen, wistaria, raisin, reseda, plum, etc. Regular

BOYS' $3 SUITS

| Special lot of Boys' Juvenile Suits, in sailor and Russian blouse styles, with Suits, sui

A Sale That Breaks All Records for Big Values.

Joseph Auerbach's Bankrupt Stock At 1=2 and Less Than 1=2 Regular Prices.

Would you get your share of the wonderful bargains being distributed in this sale of Joseph Auerbach's stock of Men's Clothing, Hats and Furnishings? Then come tomorrow and supply your needs at prices that represent but a part of the original cost of the fine merchandise sold by Auerbach. Each day sees the assortment grow less-better not delay your coming.

25c and 35c Neckwear. Choice at 12½c.

hoice of a large assortment of new designs and colorings. Auerbach's Regular 50c All-silk Four-in-hand Neckwear, in a 25c Qualities sold regularly at 25c and 35c each. Sale price .... good range of desirable colorings and designs. Choice at ......

High-Grade Neglige Shirts at Sensationally Low Prices. Lot One-Men's $1.00 and $1.25 Neglige Shirts, of fancy effects, in light and dark patterns; coat and regular styles; sizes 14 to 18. Choice at ...... Lot Two-Men's $1.50, $2 and $2.50 Neglige Shirts-the finest grades, consisting of imported madras and percale, in light and dark designs of the most exclusive character. In the lot are "Manhattan" and "Bates Street" makes. Choice at .....

butcher's linen, madras and percale; in white and neat

Famous Stetson Hats.

Lot 1-Stetson Hats. $2.45 | Lot 2-Stetson Hats. $3.25 Auerbach's stock of Full Dress Silk Hats. Sold at $6.00 each. Auerbach's stock of Collapsible Opera Hats. Sold at $5.00

Auerbach's Fine Suits. Auerbach's $18 and $9.65 Auerbach's $30.00 $15.00 Suits marked at..... $15.00

Auerbach's $25.00 $12.50 Auerbach's $35.00 $17.50

Auerbach's Fine Overcoats. finished Worsted and Oxford Vi-

cuna Overcoats, lined to the edge with silk. Sold for $17.50

Men's Fine Quality Black Vicuna Over coats, silk faced. Auerbach's price, $27.50. Our $15.00

Men's Silk Hose, 29c Pr. Regularly 75c. Lot of Auerbach's Pure Silk Half Hose, made with double heel and toe.

In black, tan, gray, navy and light blue.

All sizes. Auerbach's price, 75c a pair. Our price, 29c.

Men's High-Grade Raincoats. Men's "Slip-on" Raincoats, of silk and wool materials, with cemented strapped seams; plain and raglan sleeves. Auerbach's price, $30.00. Our price

Men's "Slip-on" Raincoats; made of waterproof material of $12.50 double texture. Auerbach's price, $25.00. Our price Men's "Slip-on" Raincoats, of fine quality twilled fabrics, in tan and olive. Auerbach's price, $18.00. Our price .....

Auerbach's Stock of Underwear.

Men's Silk and Wool Underwear shirts with French neck and faced front. Drawers with strap back,  Men's Wool Underwear, medium

THE SNARE CIRCUMSTANCE

CHAPTER XXXIII.—Continued. wall where Gaspard found the charm. he dust which covered everything in

I anathematized myself for a block- the magnifying glass upon it with bate game of cunning; and I blushed to think must appear to that subtle old sinner little further study I found, also, a caphimself, who so many times had boldly ital P. But that which lay between t waved the red flag in my face, only to

A week later, with eyes that saw the case clearly for the first time, I thanked an all-wise Providence that Philander Summerfield did escape me that morning, stupid though it made me out to be; for. to have taken him then would have been to bring to disaster what had come to be the real purpose of my investigation-the

The memory of his tortured face rose and made the pain that I had inflicted seem unwarrantable in view of the little that I had gained for my case. I did not see him again for several days, for exhaustion followed his evening of excitement, and for two days Dolly refused to permit even Milbrath to speak with him. When, however, we met again he appeared to have accepted the amends I had tried to make to him in the shape of fruit and flowers, in the spirit in which they were sent, and greeted me with his usual cordiality and friendliness. But no word of what had been said at our last meeting was mentioned, or was reference made to the death of Jim Arms. Only the new lines of pain in the kind old face remained as evidence of the mental struggle through which he had passed, or was passing; but from that hour I felt that Chauncey McClure believed me to know all that I surmised, and later I found that he credited me with the possession of facts the existence of which at that time I was far from suspecting. Yet he pale-ghostly! What's up? The day following the Arms tragedy, willing to connect himself with Hors-ford's case, I laid before the coroner and still held. the chief of police in Beverly the results of my investigations in the matter; and twenty-four hours later Horsford was not dreaming. Ouch! Yes: that's real back at Overlook upon Milbrath's bond, given through me, pending the public examination which the coroner had set for had found them, and then again held the the following Wednesday.

While I had been detailed and explicit in relating to the officers my line of deductions that resulted in my conviction that Arms' death was due to an accident and not to murder, and had told them all that I had learned from the Arms women about La Cour as La Cour, I refrained from any reference to the fact that I had come in contact with the man, and the name of Philander Summerfield was not Milbrath?"

Nevertheless I determined to force Sum my unspoken belief-and the day that wanted in Winton for the death, or as a is what you mean.' the 5th of September. These things accomplished there seemed little need for our presence in Winton, and a great desire to get away seized me.

The way that I had taken hold of the Arms mystery appeared professional to the people of the two villages, and the original suspicion that I was investigating the Sombers mystery became a sample of its type.

It was a scrapbook with a cover of red and white mottled pasteboard and on the ing the Somhers mystery became a con- and white mottled pasteboard, and on the Moreover, Milbrath, whose beard had for a time disguised him, had been recognized, and the cordiality or the coldness with which he was received by his old acquaintances had so telling an effect on his spirits that I suggested a return to "Gaspard can forward by special delivery any mail that comes, so there will some time, I suppose," Milbrath answered, "but it seems a deuced long time since they went to work, and there 've got into town by another route-if he is "Well, the police throughout the country are on the lookout for him now, wherever he is, and he may find it difficult to merfield? evade them for long unless he changes his guise, which he may do, of course. I'm of the opinion that in any case he will return to Boston sooner or later Then it is a mere matter of time until we get him. By the way, I wonder

Milbrath laughed. "We shall have the whole private detective force of Boston at our beck and | colorless. call if we continue to draw on it," he said. "But anything to win. Have every dock in the country sentineled if you "I'll consider that! But we will go to

We had risen from the supper table and McClureward was Milbrath's usual outlook at that hour. Milbrath nodded and smiled. "The old story of the spider and the fly. Will you come with me?" "Not now, thanks. I think I'll have Walter Brooks in the Glenn Island Hotel another look at some of the things in the in 1902, and Edward H. Brooks, a real

CHAPTER XXXIV. What the Blotter Revealed.

I sat on the portico and smoked until the soft darkness closed in around me. tion tomorrow. Mrs. Wildrick, who was Then I took a lighted lamp and went into the little room which Milbrath and I had not entered together since that | tomorrow. memorable Sunday evening.

Everything about the tiny apartment appeared to be as I had left it on the following morning. The gaping aperture made by the splintered door resembled the entrance to a cavern, and the Mephistopheles behind the tree in the picture above the desk peered down upon the Sunday night he said he met her and devastation with an expression that in went to her rooms. the uncertain light of one lamp appeared wholly diabolical.

A thought too wild, it seemed, to be anything but fancy had been developing in my mind during the past few hours, since a visit in the afternoon to the little room, and I was in the same little room again to verify it by further evidence or

Seating myself before the desk I rolled back the top. Then I drew from my Philander Summerfield on August 16. Ah! I was quicker to detect differences in handwriting than I had been when Mr. Hurlbert's story was corroborated in part by papers found in the pockets signature of Mr. Summerfield was assumed. How plainly I saw the difference consisted of the "confession" and the note tracts that we had found! I passed my hands across my eyes, an for an instant sat in silence, to take the next step. the place showed recent disturbance, and blurred blotter upon the desk, with its footprints that were neither mine nor border of tiny ink dots, as if their make Gaspard's were visible in both directions had sat with a well wet pen in his hand through many an abstracted moment. had worked out a theory that the blotte could tell. Would it tell it? I turned severing I detected, at fength, a letter how amateurish my handling of the case for which I looked-a capital S. After a two letters was too indistinct to read. used on the one side as on the other. No could make out a little more With the help of the lens I picked out nnumerable capitals-always the same that they were in a different style of handwriting. Presently I found the key One was the handwriting of Peter Som hers, the other of Philander Summe I could not doubt i

I sprang to my feet and held the peared over and over again, indistinct and in places almost illegible, but there merfield always, never Peter Somhers, a to the fact that the signature changed gradually from the bold uprightness Peter Somhers' chirography to the small er hand of Philander Summerfield! approach of footsteps and I was pacing up and down the tiny room, muttering to myself, when Milbrath's voice me back to my senses "You back so soon!" I cried; "was r one at home? "The evening must have been interest ing to you," he answered, dryly. "It is considerably past 10 o'clock." And so it was. The two hours that had spent in the little room had passed "What's the matter man?" asked Milbrath, coming nearer to

He glanced hastily about as if expecting to find the reason for my changed "Come here and pinch me," I said. "Pinch hard. I want to be sure that I'm enough. Now, see whether this is." I outlined with a pencil the letters as I blotter before the mirror. "Whose handwriting is it?" I asked. "Why, it's uncle's." answered Milbrath, "Well, this, surely, is his, and this, and this. Here it changes and is almost like some one's else-Summerfield, no doubt, and here it is entirely disguised."

"Do these facts signify nothing to you, Milbrath looked at me sharply. "I suppose they show that uncle was to merfield's hand by this very trump card- take on old Summerfield's handwriting when Summerfield became him, so to gave Horsford his conditional freedom speak. And I dare say it may signify found a letter on its way to Boston in what I hadn't thought of before, that he which I informed Mr. Summerfield that purposed to be Summerfield during the time-a sort of change of mantles-if that witness to the accidental death, of a far- "It is not at all what I mean. It seems mer named Arms, and that he was in to me altogether unlikely that Mr. Somgreat danger of being taken and held for hers would play the part of Summerfield the crime unless he came forward and while Summerfield was doing Somhers. I gave an account of his whereabouts on wish to God it were probable, though." "Then, for heaven's sake, what do you mean?" cried Milbrath. In answer I reached under the desk back of black linen was pasted a square of white paper on which was labeled in the bold, upright hand that was unquestionably Mr. Somhers', one word: "PERSONAL."

It was filled with newspaper clippings. and as Milbrath took the book in his hands and opened it I knew that he was wondering, as I had wondered, what on earth Peter Somhers, a reticent, retiring be little delay in getting the answer if we hear from the Virginia advertisement or from Summerfield," I said. "Moreover, we shall be on the spot when the From cover to cover it contained nothmen on the case have something to re- ing but reports of the coroner's inquiry into the death of Peter Somhers and of Harrison Milbrath's two trials! Milbrath fingered the leaves of the book, at first with a surprised expression, and then with a puzzled, questioning look. been no results from them yet. If the Presently he looked up from it and off men at the Park Square station are up into space. When his eyes returned to their duty the old fellow must have mine I knew that he had reached the into space. When his eyes returned to conclusion that seemed inevitable. "Great God! Bliss." he whispered. "You don't mean to tell me that uncle put these clippings in here; that-he-is-Sum-

Milbrath hid his head in is folded arms on the couch and his big frame shook with emotion. Presently he lifted whether we'd better have the outgoing his chin to his hands, his elbows resting transatlantic steamers watched?" space. He appeared to be thinking deeply. Then he sat upright and his face was

"It looks like that."

"Then he is La Cour."

(To be continued tomorrow.) NEW YORK ATTORNEY IS Boston in the morning. Going to Red VICTIM OF BADGER GAME

NEW YORK, September 21 .- Mrs. Flor-Burns was charged with the murder of little room. Perhaps I'll step over in estate salesman, were arrested yesterday time to walk back with you. In any case, give my best to the old gentleman and Hurlbert, a lawyer, who charges them with having robbed him by means what is known as the "badger" game of $57 and a note for $500, made payable to > Brooks was arraigned before Magistrate Steiner in the Jefferson Market court, and held in $3,000 bail for further examinaarrested after the adjournment of court, was locked up in the Elizabeth street station, and will be arraigned with Brooks According to the story told by Mr.

> Hurlbert in court, he was forced, under threats of death, to sign several declarations in which he accused himself of crimes and also to pay over $57 and to make a note for $500. Mr. Hurlbert said he had known Mrs. Wildrick for more than a year, and that

Signs $500 Note.

"I had only been there a few minutes," continued Mr. Hurlbert, "when the door was burst open and two men rushed into the room. One of them said he was her husband, and accused me of a crime. "In fear of my life I signed what they asked and then gave the note for $500 on the Greenwich Savings Bank, where I have a deposit. I was kept a prisoner until nearly 6 o'clock, when a taxicab was summoned and I was bundled into pocket the contract that I had made with it and taken for a long drive to Yonkers and back to the city, where I finally managed to escape."
Mr. Hurlbert's story was corroborated